

Central Mongolia 3 nights

Day 1: Pick up from your hotel after breakfast and drive to Kharhorin, the ancient capital of the Mongolian Empire, located ~400km southwest of UB. There are presently efforts to reestablish Kharhorin as the capital of Mongolia as it was centuries ago. Explore the restored Erdenzuu Monastery originally built in 1586. Overnight in ger camp.

Day 2: After breakfast, short drive to Elsen tasarkhai /The mini Gobi/ sand dunes, surrounded by hills with willow trees, streams and bushes, appear as a small desert in the center of the country. This sand dune is 80km long and the widest part of the sand dune is 9-10 km. The sand dunes are the perfect place for camel riding and hiking. Overnight in ger camp.

Day 3: Continue our journey to Khustai National Park. This area is home to the Mongolian wild horse known as Przewalski horse (takhi). Visit the park Information center. After lunch we will take a short drive to see for wild horse Takhi. It is a great opportunity to see these endangered horses. If you are lucky, you might see fox, deer, roe deer, eagle, and more animals and birds. Overnight in a ger camp.

Day 4: Around 9 am, we'll drive back to Ulaanbaatar.

What's Included: Meals (lunch on the first day through breakfast on the last day), English speaking guide, vehicle/driver park/entry fees, and ger accommodations.

What's Not Included: Roundtrip international airfare to/from UB, hotel in UB, airport taxes, evacuation coverage, gratuities, excess baggage fees and items of personal nature.

Note: It is private tour and will serve only for your group. No other travelers will join in your group. Driving hours and distance in the countryside will vary depending on road and weather conditions. Often time roads are very dusty, bumpy and very challenging.
