Accredited Higher Education Institution in Mongolia
Institutional Brochure & Profile 2025–2026

INSTITUTIONAL PROFILE

Mandakh University is a premier private higher education institution located in Ulaanbaatar, Mongolia. Founded in 1992 as Mandakh Accounting Institute, the University initially focused on educating qualified accounting professionals to meet the critical needs of Mongolia's developing economy. Over the decades, the institution has expanded its academic offerings and developed into a comprehensive multidisciplinary higher education institution.

Since 2006, Mandakh University has progressively introduced programmes in information technology, software engineering, information systems, finance and banking, business administration, marketing, logistics, and engineering. On August 1, 2017, the institution was officially granted university status under Mongolian higher education regulations.

LEADERSHIP, MISSION & VISION

Led by President Professor G. Nanjid, who has guided its academic development and institutional advancement, Mandakh University remains steadfastly committed to preparing competent, ethical, and internationally competitive professionals while actively contributing to Mongolia's economic and social development.
